Cleveland carried New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Indiana and the Solid South, and has 219 electoral votes, a majority of 18. He carried every Northern State that the Democrats had any hope of carrying, and gave the Republicans a powerful scare in some of their hitherto strongholds. He is President elect of the United States and the country recognizes the

TO THE COLORED PEOPLE.

We have been surprised to find that a very wide-spread alarm exists among the colored people on account of the Democratic triumph in the National election. They have an idea that it will in some way abridge their political rights and the more ignorant of them express fears of being put back into slavery.

This, of course, is all very silly. comes of the delusion that the Republicans have so long practiced on the colored voters in order to retain their support. The more intelligent ne-groes know that their citizenship, which makes them in every particular the political equals of the white man, is guaranteed to them by constitutional provisions and cannot be effected by any change of administration or party power. A Democratic Presiden could do nothing to their political detriment if he was so disposed, and they can all rest assured that Grover

The Southern people generally would oppose the disfranchisement of the negro voters for a very potent rea son. Such an act would sadly decrease the South's representation in Congress and in the electoral college. So serious a diminution of the political power of this section could not be permitted in order to gratify a prejudice against negro suffrage, if such prejudice ex-

Democratic President will give the colored people a more perfect freedom than they have ever enjoyed. We have written this expressly for the colored people and as we have quith a number of intelligent colored subscribers, we hope they will ponder what we say and make it known to those of their color who can't read. The Democratic triumph will abolish inaugurate a better and more confidential feeling between the races.
